Downloading ChemDraw

In order to download the ChemDraw software suite you need to do the following:

❖ Go to www.cambridgesoft.com

The screenshot shows the PerkinElmer Informatics website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with social media icons (Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube) and the text "INFORMATICS Home English". Below this is a search bar with the text "Website Search All Informatics Sites" and a "GO" button. A welcome message reads "Hello, Peter Norris. Welcome to PerkinElmer Informatics. [Not Peter?] MY ACCOUNT LOGOUT". A main navigation menu includes "Chemistry", "Biology", "QA/QC", "Data Analytics", "Services", "Support", "About", and "Contact". The main banner features a tablet displaying a chemical structure, with text "INTRODUCING ChemDraw® for iPad®" and a "Learn More" button. To the right of the tablet is a badge for "The Scientist TOP TEN INNOVATIONS 2013 HONORABLE MENTION". Below the banner is a "LATEST NEWS" section with three items: "PerkinElmer's ChemDraw® Software Marks 30-Year Milestone with Launch of Enhanced Solution", "AMRI and PerkinElmer Announce Drug Discovery Collaboration", and a "MORE NEWS" link. On the left side, there is a graphic with the text "INFORMATICS FOR BETTER SCIENCE" over a background of colorful, glowing molecular structures. On the right side, there is a "Featured Events" section listing several conferences and symposiums with their dates and locations.

The “site subscription” window

The breadcrumb trail is "Home > Membership > Services > Site Subscription". The main heading is "My Account » Site Subscription". A paragraph explains that an Annual Site Subscription provides software to everyone in an organization for a fraction of the price of individual copies.

On the right side, there are two sidebar menus: "Preferences" with links for "Account Home", "My Profile", "My Addresses", "My Login Information", and "How We Contact You"; and "Services" with links for "My Site Subscription", "My Downloads", "My Database Subscriptions", "Register My Software", and "Request Information".

The main content area has two sections: "Accessing Your Software" and "Frequently Asked Questions". The "Accessing Your Software" section contains a list of links: "Download Site Subscription Software" (highlighted with a red arrow), "Site Subscription Problems? Contact one of the following:", "RAY Hoff rehoff@ysu.edu", and "System Admin cts@ysu.edu". The "Frequently Asked Questions" section contains links for "Academic Site Subscription FAQ" and "Commercial Site Subscription FAQ".

Installing the software

Once the download is complete you will install as with any other program

You should receive an email with an activation code that you input at the end of installation

You will be using the software during the first lab experiment so you will have an idea how to use it
